Funding Opportunity Title: Roles and Responsibilities of Media in a Democracy

Funding Opportunity Number: AFADD-21-01

Assistance Listing Number: 19.040

Date Opened: June 17, 2021

Deadline for Applications: July 16, 2021

Total Amount Available: $200,000

A. PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The U.S. Embassy in Addis Ababa announces an open competition for non-governmental and non-profit organizations to submit applications for a project that seeks to support both state- and private media in Ethiopia entitled Roles and Responsibilities of Media in a Democracy. The selected partner is required to design a series of comprehensive weeklong media trainings for journalists from both state and private media throughout the country, up to 20 trainings in total. There should be at least 15-20 participants at each training with at least 25% female media practitioners in attendance. Based on feedback from and in close collaboration with the U.S. Embassy, the partner will implement these trainings nation-wide for hundreds of public and private media actors. The content of media trainings will address the media's roles and responsibilities in a democracy.

The goal of this project is to enhance the professional capacity of both state and private media through needs-based and focused trainings. Applicants are encouraged to explore interactive, creative approaches to ensure media participants get hands-on practice in writing and producing non-biased content across media platforms.

A committee comprised of U.S. Embassy officials will evaluate proposals. The selected implementing partner will be announced in early September with an estimated start date of October –December 2021. Both virtual and in-person trainings should be considered to maximize flexibility given the ongoing global pandemic. COVID mitigation must be strictly adhered to at all times.

Priority Region:

The project will target both state-run and private media operating in Addis Ababa and throughout the ten regional states.

Program Objectives:

The project seeks to enhance the skill sets of journalists and strengthen the institutional capacity of Ethiopian media organizations with the overarching goal of improving the quality of information available to the Ethiopian public in a democracy. The program will empower local media actors to play a critical role in providing accurate, balanced, and quality information. It will also consider Train the Trainer type programs so that the experience is maximized and passed forward.

The partner for this project should demonstrate a capacity to develop relevant content for democracy-focused trainings, deliver hands-on and engaging trainings, provide feedback into writing produced during the training, and evaluate training outcomes. The selected partner proposal should also facilitate procurement, manage travel, contract-training venues, and supply Embassy-approved training materials. Grant funds will cover these costs, as well as administrative costs and monitoring and evaluation.

Participants and Audiences:

The target audiences are journalists from both state and private media throughout the country. At least 15-20 participants will attend each training, and at least 20 trainings will take place.
